The Louisiana Historical Association is soliciting donations for three award funds.

THE AMOS E. SIMPSON FUND

This fund honors Dr. Amos E. Simpson (1925-2014), a longtime contributor to the LHA. Simpson authored several books on Louisiana and European History, served as the president of many historical organizations, including the LHA, and was a generous friend and mentor to many Louisiana students and scholars. This fund will be used to support research grants and awards for the study of Louisiana History.

THE GLENN R. CONRAD PRIZE

This prize honors Mr. Glenn R. Conrad (1932-2003), editor of the journal Louisiana History from 1973 to 1993 and Secretary-Treasurer of the LHA from 1993 to 2003. Conrad authored numerous publications, particularly within the field of local history. Conrad founded the Center for Louisiana Studies in 1973 and was its director from its inception until his death.

The Glenn R. Conrad Prize will be awarded biannually to the best published article on any aspect of Louisiana history from any source.

THE KIMBERLY S. HANGER PRIZE

This prize honors Dr. Kimberly S. Hanger (1962-1999), whose work was tremendously influential within the field of Spanish colonial Louisiana history, particularly her monograph Bounded Lives, Bounded Places: Free Black Society in Colonial New Orleans, 1769-1803 (1997). Hanger also authored A Medley of Cultures: Louisiana History at the Cabildo (1996).

The Kimberly S. Hanger Prize is awarded annually for the best undergraduate-level paper presented at a Phi Alpha Theta session of the annual LHA conference.

To contribute to either of these funds, please indicate the amount of your donation in the space provided on the interior of this membership renewal form or visit the LHA online at www.lahistory.org.
